

Annie Johnson Flint

He Giveth More Grace

He giveth more grace when the burdens grow greater,
He sendeth more strength when the labors increase;
To added affliction He addeth His mercy;
To multiplied trials, His multiplied peace.

When we have exhausted our store of endurance,
When our strength has failed ere the day is half done,
When we reach the end of our hoarded resources,
Our Father's full giving is only begun.

Fear not that thy need shall exceed His provision,
Our God ever yearns His resources to share;
Lean hard on the arm everlasting, availing;
The Father both thee and thy load will upbear.

His love has no limit; His grace has no measure.

His pow'r has no boundary known unto men;

For out of His infinite riches in Jesus, He giveth, and giveth, and giveth again!

- Annie Johnson Flint

Annie Johnson Flint was a household name in Christian homes before she went to be with her beloved Savior in 1932.

She was a prolific writer whose poems and hymns deeply touched the lives of thousands of God's people around the world.

Her secret is that she wrote from her heart out of a life of suffering, pain, and sorrow.

She demonstrated to the whole world how God can be glorified by trials and tribulations few are called on to bear. She lived the realities she proclaimed through verse.

She was born in New Jersey, where her parents died when she was just 5 years old. She and her sister lived for 2 unhappy years with a widow who had 2 children of her own and very limited income.

Then a childless couple named Flint adopted her and her sister. They deeply loved Jesus and the girls. Annie received the Savior as her own at 8 years of age. She taught school for 3 years until severe arthritis made it no longer possible. Within 2 additional years she was unable to walk.

She moved to Clifton Springs, NY, in hope of finding a cure. Instead, she had to give up her dreams of being a concert pianist and live in constant pain, writing with twisted hands and body.

Annie sought always to leave everything with her Lord. After nearly 50 years of suffering submitted to Him, her last words were, "It's all right."

Annie Johnson Flint was a household name in Christian homes before she went to be with her beloved Savior in 1932.

She was a prolific writer whose poems and hymns deeply touched the lives of thousands of God's people around the world.

Her secret is that she wrote from her heart out of a life of suffering, pain, and sorrow.

She demonstrated to the whole world how God can be glorified by trials and tribulations few are called on to bear. She lived the realities she proclaimed through verse.

She was born in New Jersey, where her parents died when she was just 5 years old. She and her sister lived for 2 unhappy years with a widow who had 2 children of her own and very limited income.

Then a childless couple named Flint adopted her and her sister. They deeply loved Jesus and the girls. Annie received the Savior as her own at 8 years of age. She taught school for 3 years until severe arthritis made it no longer possible. Within 2 additional years she was unable to walk.

She moved to Clifton Springs, NY, in hope of finding a cure. Instead, she had to give up her dreams of being a concert pianist and live in constant pain, writing with twisted hands and body.

Annie sought always to leave everything with her Lord. After nearly 50 years of suffering submitted to Him, her last words were, "It's all right."